

VIRGINIA SECTION ACS
REPORT OF THE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE
JUNE 19, 2020

Three issues of The Bulletin have been published in 2020:

January (Awards Meeting on January 24);
February (Powell Lectureship on February 28); and March (March 13 meeting at Randolph-Macon College, cancelled).

Two email notices were sent to Section members to inform them of schedule changes due to the coronavirus pandemic - March 16 and May 7.

The March 13 and April 17 meetings of the Section were cancelled. This included the presentation of the R. Gerald Bass Award for Exceptional Service to Dr. Ann Marie Sullivan, the annual Poster Session for Undergraduate Research, and the presentation of awards to outstanding students at colleges and universities.

Current plans include a Summer issue of The Bulletin, along with monthly issues for September, October, November, and December.

Expenditures for 2020 total $817.76, including $490.00 for the annual fee for the Constant Contact email service.

James D. Beck, Chair of the Publications Committee and Editor of The Bulletin

Will H. Lewis, Jr., Publisher of The Bulletin