

ACS Educational Grant Report
Kristine Smetana

$1000 was given out this spring to two schools/programs. One was to help a teacher with her science program get some basic materials that could be used for both online learning and at the school and that were lacking for her lab at Church Hill Academy. The other was for the 4-H STEM Program in Greenville County to help promote . Both have helped significantly.

Please see attached files to the email.